BILLS PASSED BY THE SENATE

SEVERAL OF CONSIDERABLE IMPORTANCE.

Will Hereafter Consider Rate Bill Each Day—Questions Discussed in House—Other Washington News.

Washington, March 13.—Before taking up the railroad question to day the senate passed a number of bills, some of which were of considerable importance. One provides for the punishment of government officials for premature divulgence of secret information of the government.

Simmons made the speech of the day on the railroad rate question. He announced his support of the house measure, but said he would not oppose reasonable modifications.

Tillman announced that after to-morrow he would seek to have the rate bill taken up for consideration each day immediately after disposing of routine business of the senate, instead of waiting until 2 o'clock.

HOUSE.
The house devoted itself to day to general debate on the legislative appropriation bill. First there was discussed the question of eliminating aged clerks from the employ of the government; then came discussion of free alcohol for aris, restriction of Japanese immigration, and finally defense of New York city.

Tiltman of New York and Livingston of Georgia, representing Republican and Democratic views, concurred on the question that something must be done in the way of reorganizing the government service. Marshall of North Dakota gave his voice to the proposition for free alcohol; Hayes of California spoke in behalf of restricting Japanese and Korean immigration, and Bennett of New York defended his city in relation to the class of foreigners who make their home in New York.

WILLIAMS' BILL.
Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi addressed the house committee on election of president, vice president and representatives to congress to day on his bill to prevent railroads and national banks from contributing money to campaign funds, or from using money to influence either state or national legislation. Williams said his bill was not designed to interfere with election systems, but merely to prevent corporations from misusing public money, and to put it plainly, is an effort to prevent "high toned theft."

Representatives Bonyne of Colorado, Palmer of Pennsylvania and a number of other speakers appeared in support of various bills to purify elections.

DISBURSING CLERK.
William S. Richards of Iowa clerk in the office of the auditor of the state department, has been selected as disbursing clerk of the treasury department. He is a personal friend of Secretary Shaw.

COST OF INVESTIGATION.
The president to day sent for Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce commission to inquire of him as to the amount of money the commission ought to have to carry out the investigation under the Tillman-Gillespie resolution directing the commission to inquire into alleged restraint by railroads in the coal and oil trade. Knapp advised the president the commission would require at least $50,000.

HOURS OF LABOR.
Representative Esch of Wisconsin introduced a bill to day empowering the interstate commerce commission, when complaint is made, to fix the maximum number of hours employees of carriers may be required to work continuously.

CAPITAL NOTES.
Senator Lodge expects to draft an amendment to the house railroad rate bill to restore the penal clause of the interstate commerce act which was repealed by the Elkins anti-rebate law.

ROOSEVELT AND TAFT

Elected Honorary Members of Club to Oppose Bossism and Machine Politics.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 13.—President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft were to night unanimously elected honorary members of the Roosevelt Republican club of this city. This club is a new organization formed after the recent election as an instrument for the maintenance of a Republican organization "opposed to bossism and machine politics."

In a long letter of acknowledgment and acceptance of the honor for himself and for the president Taft makes some striking statements. The recent defeat of George E. Cox as the political leader of this city, the secretary says, is a great ## step toward good municipal government.

"but its benefit may be largely lost if the people put themselves on the back with the pleasant idea that the machine is broken up and that the future will take care of itself. The truth is, victory will be worse than fruitless unless some means are devised to make its effect permanent. It is idle to hope the people may be aroused at every political contest to defeat machine states unless there are counter organizations made up of young men actuated by a patriotic desire to select only good candidates."

He advises the club to decline to support candidates of its own party if such candidates do not come up to the proper standard for public offices. At the same time he advises them to use wise discretion in holding. He suggests independence in municipal elections and advises the club to steadfastly resist and expose corruption and be active in promoting reform in public affairs.

NEW MASONIC QUARTERS.
Springfield, March 13.—The new home for the Springfield Masons is to be one of the most beautiful in the state of Illinois when completed. The house and lot situated on South Sixth street just north of Christ church, which was bought last summer, is a very attractive place as it now stands, but it is to be thoroughly remodeled and a large addition built. The price was purchased for $16,500.

When the property was bought the occupants had a lease on the building which will not expire for about a year and a half yet and the improvements will not be commenced until then. It is intended at the expiration of that time to erect a large brick building just back of the present house. The residence property will be fitted up as general club rooms with all of the conveniences used in such places. The building in the rear will be used by all of the Masonic lodges in the city for a meeting place. It will be handsomely decorated and arranged.

CALEB POWERS CASE

United States Supreme Court Holds Case Not Removable From Kentucky Courts—Opinion by Justice Harlan.

Washington, March 13.—The Caleb Powers case was decided by the United States supreme court yesterday against Powers, charged with the murder of Governor Goebel. The opinion was delivered by Justice Harlan and held that the case was not removable from the state to the federal courts. The case was therefore remanded to the Kentucky state courts.

The opinion was based on the ground that the equal rights statute, section 61, revised statutes, does not apply unless recognized by state laws or the state constitution. Justice Harlan said that the supreme court of the United States could take no cognizance of the case on a writ of error. The opinion was unanimous.

Note—Former Governor Yates is one of the counsel for the defendant and has made two trips to Washington to appear before the supreme court in the interest of Powers.

KILLED BY JOY

Bellefonte, Ill., March 13.—Less than two hours after the birth of the baby, for which he had longed, John A. Rompel, president of the Rompel Foundry company, died suddenly at his home, North Illinois street, before he had seen the child. Dr. E. M. Irwin, coroner, at the inquest, said death was due to heart trouble. Overjoy hastened his death.

Mrs. Rompel, when told of her husband's death, wept and remained unconscious for several hours.

Mr. Rompel was apparently in good health when the birth and sex of the child was announced to him. He had one other child, a daughter 4 years old. He was well pleased at the news and expressed his joy to his sister, Mrs. P. M. Gundlach, and the neighbor women. He asked that he be permitted to see his wife and son as soon as possible. While waiting he went to the dining room and ate a light lunch.

The noise of a falling body was heard by the women, and they hurried to the dining room. They found Mr. Rompel lying on the floor. Before they could lift him he was dead. The nurse was waiting at the other door to say that his wife and son were waiting to see him. She returned to Mrs. Rompel and attempted to conceal the truth, but Mrs. Rompel persisted, until she knew that her husband was dead. Then she swooned.

THREATENED STRIKE AVERTED.

Washington, March 13.—After more than a week given to conferences, officers of the Southern railway and the committee representing the telegraph operators and station agents on its lines have agreed on a new scale of wages, averting a threatened strike. No minimum and maximum wages was adopted.

INJURIES RESULT IN DEATH.

Canton, Ill., March 13.—Frank J. Stewart, aged 40 years, a life resident of the city, and one of the best known business men in the county, is dead from internal injuries, sustained March 3. When leaving a Burlington train he slipped and fell between the cars and was dragged quite a distance before the train was stopped.

MINE WORKERS' CONVENTION

WILL HAVE TO RESCIND RYAN RESOLUTION

Until This Is Done No Joint Conference With Operators Can Be Held—Yet Hopeful for Settlement.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—The Star will say to-morrow:
The rescinding of the Ryan resolution will be the most important business to come before the special national convention of the United Mine Workers which begins to-morrow morning. Until this is done there can be no joint conference with the operators, who will come to Indianapolis next week.

This is the effect of the announcement by anthracite operators that they will not accede to the demands of their employees. Refusal of the anthracite operators to treat further with the miners makes a settlement with the union in districts No. 1, No. 7 and No. 9 out of the question. The Ryan resolution, adopted by the miners just before adjournment of their regular national convention, provides that contracts must be signed in all districts under control of the organization at the same time, or that no agreements shall be entered into. It is conceded that, as no overtures for a joint conference of miners and operators of the bituminous field by either party, such a conference, if one is held, must come about as a natural development of the meetings of the opposing forces being held in Indianapolis at the same time. But the first inquiry the operators will make will be: "Is the Ryan resolution still in force?" If it is rescinded, then the operators will refuse to begin a joint conference that would not be able to ratify an agreement even if one could be reached.

There is a blunder of satisfaction on the faces of the members of the miners' national executive board, which indicates that they believe there is yet hope for a settlement with their employers and that at least that part of their demands which relates to a "substantial increase in wages," will be granted. None of them will discuss the subject to any great extent, but it is easy to see they are in a better frame of mind than when they left Indianapolis six weeks ago.

SHOT TO DEATH

Dead Bodies of Fishermen Found—Their Companion Under Arrest.

St. Louis, March 13.—The dead bodies of two fishermen, Fred Hentz and William Semmet, with their faces torn to shreds by charges from a shotgun, were found to day lying near an abandoned coal chute along the Mississippi river, between Granite City and Alton, Ill. Henry Steffen was arrested on suspicion. At the police station Steffen said he and Hentz and Semmet had been camping together and that yesterday some unknown assassin suddenly fired upon them in camp with a shotgun, killing his companions.

BURGLAR SHOT

Red Oak, Iowa, March 13.—Sheriff Williams this morning shot and instantly killed Harry Barker while the latter was in the act of committing a burglary in the office of George Brown's iron works. Barker and a companion were working in the lighted room and the sheriff fired through a window. The other burglar escaped. They secured no booty. Barker was an ex-convict.

NOTHING HEARD.

Vinita, I. T., March 13.—Up to 9 o'clock to night no word has been received from United States Marshal Darrough or any of his posse who are pursuing the Wickliffe gang of Cherokee outlaws. The chase may last several days before the Indians are overtaken.

OIL MAN REPRIMANDED

For Concealing Facts in Hearing Before Interstate Commerce Commission.

Kansas City, Mo., March 13.—Francis M. Cockrell of the interstate commerce commission severely reprimanded G. W. Mayer, Kansas City manager of the Standard Oil company, to day during the investigation into the alleged methods of railroads and the Standard Oil company in discriminating against independent oil men hereabouts. The lawyers for the commission and for independent oil producers had been trying hard to get from Mayer an admission that there was any connection between the Standard Oil, Union Tank Line, the Republic Oil company, the Waters-Pierce and other companies. To all questions Mayer answered: "I do not know," although he had been manager of the Standard Oil company for twenty-eight years. At the close of his testimony, Cockrell asked him: "Tell this commission, are the Republic Oil company and the Waters-Pierce Oil company part of the Standard Oil company?"

"I do not know, sir."

"What is your best impression about it?"

"I have none."

"Don't you feel and know in your heart that they are all part and parcel of the same company?"

"I do not know, sir."

"Don't you feel in your heart it is so?"

"I don't know, sir."

Then the veteran examiner stepped the desk with his fist and said severely: "I am tired of all this effort made by Standard Oil people to conceal this fact, when every man, woman and child knows it is so. Now, everybody wants the truth told here, and why don't you tell it?"

Every tab ought to stand upon its own bottom and you folks ought not to dodge this question further."

Several witnesses testified to discrimination by railroads against independent producers. The hearing will be concluded to-morrow.

NO MORE INFORMATION.

The Standard Oil company through Alfred D. Eddy of Chicago its general western attorney, has notified Attorney General Hadley who was in Kansas City to day, that it will give him no more information in his suit to oust the Standard and allied companies from Missouri than it is compelled to.

ASK FOR PROOF

Iowa Governor Called on to Make Good Charge Regarding Defeat of Primary Bill.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 13.—The house by a vote of 73 to 6, passed the Gilliland resolution calling upon Governor Cummins to make good his charges that railroad influence was used to defeat the primary election bill. An amendment providing for a committee of investigation was voted down and the governor will now be asked to send in proof of the charges he made in his letter accepting a third term nomination.

Governor Cummins charges that the railroads were using every power that money or influence could direct and intimidated that members of the legislature to make casual disclosures which he claims to have regarding the work of lobbyists in the state and his friends in the legislature secured passage of the resolution.

With the passage by the senate to day of the child labor bill, the measure will become a law, as Governor Cummins will sign it at once. The new law prohibits employment of children under 15 years of age in any gainful occupation which would injure his health. The law is aimed at department stores, prohibiting the employment of children in positions which compel them to remain standing for any length of time.

BILLIARD TOURNEY.

Chicago, March 13.—Calvin Demorest of Chicago and J. F. Richards of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., won second and third games in the national amateur billiard championship tourney here to day. They defeated National Champion Cullen of Chicago, and Charles S. Norris of New York, respectively. Demorest electrified the audience with a brilliant run of 65 and much sensational massé play.

MORE TROUBLES

Various Ugly Rumors of Strike and Insurrection in Russia Current.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—It is rumored that officers of a guards regiment, upon receiving orders to go to battle provinces to participate in the "pacification" of the country, met and resigned in a body. The name of the regiment is not given, and the rumor cannot be confirmed to night.

Ugly reports of another general railroad strike in Moscow are current. The government is taking exceptional measures and battalions of sappers are being massed at Moscow to take the places of the strikers, and military trains are held in readiness at various stations to proceed in any direction.

Emperor Nicholas in receiving a deputation of Tula peasants who presented him to day with a loyal address and an ikon, made the following significant remarks:

"Do not allow yourselves to be influenced by the enemies of public order, who are going through villages exciting the peasants. Do not take the law into your own hands, but deliver the agitators to the authorities, by whom they will be judged with all severity."

TURKS MASSACRE THOUSANDS.

London, March 13.—Leyland Burton, who has just returned from Samarra, where the Turkish troops are operating against the rebellious tribesmen, declares that more than 50,000 natives have been massacred by the Turks and that the latter are resorting to cannibalistic practices.

MAKES A PLEA FOR VETERANS

LETTER WRITTEN BY CORPORAL TANNER.

Protects Against Proposed Action Reducing Compensation of Government Clerks After Attaining Age of 65.

Washington, March 13.—Corporal Tanner, commander in chief of the Grand Army, has written a letter to Congressman Tawney of Minnesota, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, protesting vigorously against the action of Tawney's committee in recommending enactment of a law reducing compensation of government clerks after they have attained the age of 65 years. Tanner writes particularly in behalf of his comrades of the civil war, many of whom now employed in the government service would be affected adversely by the proposed reduction in compensation.

"Operation of the proposed penalty for loyal and faithful service," Tanner says, "would fall so heavily upon those who bore the burden of battle in the union army that I must treat it as if they were the sole beneficiaries. It is for them, my comrades, I speak. I am indignant to think this duty I owe them, and could not if I would. They stood with me when I stand meant victory then, that congress of the United States should meet ever since and now in Washington, instead of Richmond; that the stars and stripes should float forever and a day over all, emblematic of a united, prosperous, happy country. I venture to say that you won't find a Confederate soldier behind your bill. Only this moment, I endorsed an earnest request to our soldier president to honor a Confederate brigadier whom your proposed 'limitation' would remove from the waiting list, because, when having the power to remove or discharge a large number of my comrades, he placed his resignation in the hands of his superior if a single one of them was to be disturbed."

Tanner then calls attention to the present law, which he says is sufficient to make changes when employees become incapacitated, the department having ample power in that respect he says, and continues:

"You propose the alive horse should be the veteran's refuge in life, and perhaps, after you have kicked him out to mangle his bones over the stones, you will deny him burial in consecrated ground, close against him the gates of Arlington. I write not in anger, but in deep sorrow, for it is my country and my comrades with whom I have so long touched elbows in whose name this great wrong is being done. They counted not the cost in the days of their youth, health and strength; now they are almost at the turn of the tide, nearly all in. For years they have given to the government, in civil life the same earnest, hard working, faithful, loyal service they gave in time of war; for years and years to come their very experience will be of incalculable value. Your bill makes their superior competency an absolute disqualification because of the years taken to acquire it."

Tanner closes with an appeal to Tawney to speak for the veterans instead of against them.

FRANCE'S NEW MINISTERS.

Paris, March 13.—President Fallieres to day signed the decrees nominating new ministers, which will appear in the Official Journal to-morrow morning. A general statement of ministerial policy will be made in the chamber of deputies in the afternoon. The cabinet at that time will express its determination to continue Rouvier's line of action relative to foreign affairs, which has been repeatedly approved by parliament.

PRICE WENT DOWN

Heavy Drop in Chicago Traction Stock Owing to Court Decision.

Chicago, March 13.—The prices of Chicago Traction stocks suffered severely on both the New York and Chicago stock exchanges. In New York the price of Union Traction common stock broke almost in half, dropping from 11 1/2 to 7 1/2 preferred, which closed last night at 46, declined to 30. West Chicago showed a decline of 15 points from the close of 63 last night, and North Chicago was down 23 points. The City Railway company sold to day at a loss of 23 1/2 points. On the exchange here the break in prices was attributed to the rush of small holders, who desired to get rid of their stocks at almost any price.

The wrong interpretation placed on the reports of the supreme court decision aroused much wrath among local brokers to day. Several prominent brokerage houses were thrown completely on the wrong track by the first reports, which declared the decision favored the company. The amount involved was not great, but from the flood of orders and perplexed messages which rained on Chicago brokers to day it was evident a great many people had been sadly perplexed by the decision.

It is estimated by local financiers that the decision has wiped out franchise belonging to the Union Traction company valued at $50,000,000 to $55,000,000.

NEW RAILROAD.

Springfield, Ill., March 13.—The secretary of state to day incorporated the Hanover Railroad company, organized to construct a line to be a connecting link between the Burlington railroad at Hanover, Jo Daviess county, with the Great Western at North Hanover, in the same county. The capital stock is nominally $200,000. Incorporators: Benjamin Radio, William Speer, George Jefferson, John Endle and Albert B. White, all of Hanover.

THE PACKING CASE.

Chicago, March 13.—District Attorney Morrison made the opening argument for the government in the packers' case this afternoon. Attorney John S. Miller concluded his contentions in behalf of Armour & Co., and was followed by Attorney George W. Brown, representing Swift & Co. Attorney Morris Rosenthal will follow District Attorney Morrison, after which Attorney General Moody will make his argument.

BRYAN HEARST

Part Company—Latter Bars Name of Democratic Leader From Appearing in Any of His Papers—Jealousy Declared to Be Cause.

Chicago, March 13.—A break with a surprising sequence, it was learned yesterday, has occurred in the former close friendship between William Jennings Bryan, twice Democratic nominee for president, and William Randolph Hearst, energetic seeker of the nomination. As a result, the name of Mr. Bryan still regarded by thousands as the Democratic leader has been barred by Mr. Hearst, who appears to be the leader, from endorsement in any of his newspapers.

This state of affairs has caused resentment among the numerous Democrats who admire Mr. Bryan. The resentment has been made strong by the fact that Mr. Hearst appealed to the Democrats in the St. Louis convention to nominate him to the place on the ticket that had been occupied by Mr. Bryan and made his appeal particularly to the elements in the party who acknowledge Bryan as a leader. In the opinion of Mr. Bryan's friends, Mr. Hearst's remarkable action in excluding the name of a man he twice supported for president, whose principles he lauded, and for whom he professed great personal regard, has been inspired by feelings of personal jealousy alone. Mr. Bryan, say these men, is recognized by Hearst as the man whom he will have to defeat if he is to be nominated for president at the next Democratic national convention.

STREET CAR ACCIDENT.

One Life Lost and Six Fatally Injured at Quabbin.

Omaha, Neb., March 13.—A collision between two street cars to day in South Omaha resulted in the instant death of one passenger, probably fatal injuries to six and more or less serious injury to eleven others. The dead man is supposed to be James Italian of Ft. Worth, Texas. The fatally injured Mary Abraham, T. E. Peterson and Richard Wendland, of Omaha. Fred Hoffman, of Alhambra; William Hight and Leo M. McGuire, of South Omaha.

Two cars were pushing each other, going in opposite directions, when drifted snow threw one of them from the track. It struck the other car in the center, cutting it in two.

MOROCCAN REFORMS

Paris, March 13.—With reference to the Franco-German controversy over Moroccan reforms, the Temps says: "Should Germany maintain her claim for an inspektor of police commanding at Casa Blanca, France can only oppose her veto to the humiliating proposition. Germany's insistence on exclusion of Casa Blanca from the Franco-Spanish mandate is only attributable to a desire to obtain a part of Morocco. To the trap thus laid France prefers a status quo, which would be better than such an abridgment. With accord with Great Britain and Spain at Fez, France has a thousand means of defeating the status quo against the German aims. France already has conceded much and now is only struggling for the minimum of her rights and the preservation of her dignity."

INDICTED EMBEZZLER SUICIDES.

Lake Charles, La., March 13.—Horace S. Perez, under indictment in the federal court for embezzlement when postmaster at Jennings, in the district court for forgery, attempted suicide by cutting his throat on a train after leaving Echo yesterday, and was brought here in a dying condition.

PATRICK IS REPRIEVED.

Albany, N. Y., March 13.—Governor Higgins Monday reprieved Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of Millardro William Marsh Rice, sixty days, until May 15, to permit thorough investigation of alleged new evidence favorable to the condemned man.

COMPLETE DISASTER.

Rome, March 13.—The Vatican has been following the French cabinet crisis with the keenest interest but its solution is considered to complete the disaster to the Catholic church in France.

WISCONSIN COACH RESIGNS.

Madison, Wis., March 13.—Andrew M. Odea, coach of the Wisconsin university crews, resigned to day. Disaffection with existing conditions is given as the cause.

LEAGUE OF CIVIC CLUBS.

New York, March 13.—Thirty-five delegates, representing twelve of the larger universities to night organized an inter-collegiate league of civic clubs. Chicago university and Michigan were among the universities represented. A constitution was adopted which provides for annual conventions and admission of other colleges to membership.

MAY DEFEAT STATEHOOD BILL

CAN BE HELD UP BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Such Plan of House Leaders Has Disconcerted "Insurgents"—Measure is Still on the Speaker's Table.

Washington, March 13.—There are indications that the statehood bill may be referred by Speaker Cannon to the committee on territories. This action, friends of statehood for the Indian Territory and Oklahoma fear, will entirely defeat the measure. The committee can retain the bill indefinitely and should it appear that there are "insurgent" votes enough to concur with the senate the bill would not, they say, be brought into the house.

Under the rules of the house, a senate amendment to a house bill which changes the charge on the treasury, sends the bill to committee automatically. The amendment in question is one granting lands to the new state for school purposes, in sections 12 and 33 reserved in each township prove to be mineral lands. Although the bill goes to the committee without motion in the house, it is still on the speaker's table. Unless some member insists that reference be made at once the plan is to defer reference until the return on Saturday of members who have gone south on the river and harbor inspection tour. An agreement was made before they left whereby nothing was to be done with the statehood bill until their return.

News that the bill was to go to committee, which looked out to day, was somewhat disconcerting to the "insurgents," who have been handling their energies to strengthen their numbers in expectation of a direct vote on the motion to concur in the senate amendments. If some way had not been discovered to send the bill to committee this motion to concur would have been in order and would have taken precedence over a motion to disrepute and no into conference. Just how the "insurgents" are to meet the new situation has not been decided upon, as far as can be ascertained.

TAHITA OUT OFF

Since Recent Disastrous Hurricane—Volcano Eruptions on a Samoan Island.

Honolulu, March 13.—The steamer Sierra, which arrived here to day from Australia via Samoa, reports that there has been no communication with Tahiti since the recent disastrous hurricane. Officers of the Sierra report the eruption of a volcano on the island of Suvaia, in the Samoan group, continues on a large scale. Three villages have been completely destroyed. Lava from the volcano is flowing into the ocean in a stream three-quarters of a mile wide and twenty feet deep, at the rate of twenty feet an hour. At night a solid wall of molten lava five miles long can be seen reaching far out into the sea. For some distance ahead the sea water is boiling and surf breaking over the fiery stream.

Auckland, New Zealand, March 13.—The steamer Tavulu from the Samoan Islands, has arrived and brings details of the storm which swept the Society Islands and Cook's Islands Feb. 7 and 8. The damage to the harbor at Pago Pago was $200,000 and to the whole island of Tahiti, $300,000. The islands of Vaevo and Tikaueru have disappeared. The loss of life in all islands may exceed fifty. Anne Island, on which was the once beautiful district of Futuara, was reduced to a bare coral strand.

GREAT INTEREST

SHOWN IN TABERNACLE MEETINGS TUESDAY

Many Business Houses Close for Period of Two Hours—Stirring Appeals Made to Unconverted—Dr. Culpepper Improving.

During Tuesday various rumors were afloat concerning the condition of Dr. Culpepper, who is ill at the Dunlap house. Dr. Culpepper is worn out from a long strain of work and is in a weak condition. However, he is not in a serious state, and is gaining steadily. It is the expectation that he will be on his feet again within a few days. Last night he sent word to the tabernacle audience that he had at least twelve more sermons in him that must get out before he leaves Jacksonville, and that he would get them out, even if he had to do it at the rate of three a day.

Notwithstanding the illness of Dr. Culpepper which interfered with the plans for the tabernacle meetings of Tuesday, the services were of an inspiring character. From 1 o'clock until 3 o'clock a majority of the business houses were closed and many of the business men and their clerks attended the afternoon service. Dr. Conoley preached in the afternoon and Rev. O. B. Culpepper delivered the sermon at night. It is expected that Dr. Culpepper will be able to be at the tabernacle within a day or two at the outside.

Rev. T. H. Marsh opened the afternoon meeting with a fervent and eloquent prayer. A good sized audience was present, and heard with the deepest interest the spirited song service led by Rev. O. B. Culpepper.

Dr. Conoley preached, prefacing his sermon with a few remarks as follows:

"It is quite a privilege and quite a responsibility to stand before an audience like this and try to say a few words. We stand before an audience containing many business men who are sometimes the hardest to talk to. They become so engrossed with the everyday affairs of life that they fail to see the hand of providence in the things about them.

"So I wish to bring before them the God that is in the everyday affairs of life."

Dr. Conoley then took as his text 1 Timothy v:24: "Some men's sins are open before-hand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." This sermon was one of great power, a few thoughts being as follows:

"This text brings before our minds two classes of sinners, the open sinner, and the one whose iniquities are hidden. There are two classes consequently two ways God has of dealing with them. It is God's inevitable purpose to punish sin. But he does not reach all men the same way.

"Some men's sins are open before-hand." These we pity. These we consider unfortunate. There are some men who can not drink for physical reasons; there are others who can take a drink and nobody will know anything about it; with others, somebody will always smell it on them, or see them coming out of a saloon wiping their mouths, and they become the subject of gossip. Some men sin without paying the penalty, others cannot sin without it being at once found out.

"Nobody ever stood up and spoke to the people who knew more of the consequences of sin than Jesus Christ. Yet he never emphasized the consequences of sin in this life. The whole strength of His teaching was turned toward the explanation of the consequences of sin after death. Jesus Christ loves with an infinite love. He loves you too deeply and too strongly to let you go on heedlessly to a devil's hell. He would teach you that the way of the transgressor is hard. He would teach you that this way leads to destruction. The physical manifestations of sin are not judgments of God. They are the means used by Jesus Christ to turn a sinner from his headstrong ways to bring him up short to a realization of his sin, and give him a chance to turn away.

"Hear me this afternoon. When you die you can't take your money with you. You can't take your business with you. But your conscience, your record, and your memory will go with you to judgment.

"You have forgotten the things that you have done, but God will confront you with the record, and you will be astounded. Your sins have gone on before, and you think you are out of reach of them, but when you get there you will find them there to confront you.

"Some men they follow after. This man can get drunk and it doesn't appear to hurt him. He is generally a nice appearing gentleman. When a boy sees the drunkard in the gutter, he is appalled; but when he sees the other he thinks, 'If that man can drink I can drink.' Many a business man here has been caught in his sin, but you don't seem to care, so long as he is a respectable sinner.

"Daniel speak of the abomination of desolation. Do you want to know what I consider the abomination of desolation? It is the church fair. When a man is asked for a political contribution, he puts his hands in his pockets and hands out the cash. But when a man is approached for money for the church, you have to feel him to get a quarter for God.

"You may fool men, but you can't fool God. You may sin and cover it up before men, and fool men, but you are not fooling God. He sees you. He knows you. He has your record. He is an all-seeing eye. You may go out into the shades of darkness but he sees you still. You can't get away from the all-seeing eye of God. God will find you! God will find you! He will turn loose his blood hounds upon you! He puts them upon the tracks of men. He puts them upon the tracks of women, and he will run you down if it takes till the judgment day.

"You are loading down your life every day with the very elements that will drag you down to destruction. Where are your sins to day? Where, I say, are your sins to day? Go to Bob Ingersoll, go to Paine, and read their books, and see what you can learn about sin. Jesus Christ is the only one from whom you can learn anything of sin. Come to Him now, while he is pleading with you, come."

Rev. Mr. Conoley then made a strong plea to all to come to God during the singing of a stirring hymn. A great many responded.

TUESDAY NIGHT SERVICE.

At Tuesday night's tabernacle service Rev. O. B. Culpepper preached a very helpful stirring sermon addressed especially to young men. Mr. Culpepper took as his text Zachariah 2:4. "Run and speak to that young man."

"My text is the words of one angel to another, and so if angels are interested in young men, we ought to be. There is joy in the presence of God and the angels over one soul that repenteth. I believe that our loved ones in heaven are interested in us. No doubt mother and other loved ones are holding prayer meetings in heaven for some of you. The text does not say be slow, but it says 'run and speak to that young man.' That is you must hurry and speak to him because he will not be young long and because he will not be there long.

"I cannot keep still here on this platform because I have the energy of a young man. A little girl was once converted and when she told her grandfather he said she must be as staid and serious as he. But I am thankful that the boy does not have to become old because he starts on the Christ life. No he must just get his heart right and then live happily and merrily before men as a youth should. Tell the young man to be obedient. Abraham was a beautiful example of obedience when he gets himself ready to sacrifice his son Isaac at the order of his God. The son and the father were both ready to obey the Lord and He smiled upon them both. Tell the young man to give to God the best part of his life. 'My son, give me thine heart,' is written in the Bible and God has a right to ask it. God has certainly given us the best and so we should give Him our best; not only because He demands it and has a right to it, but also for the reason that it is a safe investment. Your life invested with God will bring you the best and safest returns. The greatest of all sins is presuming on God's mercy. You say I intend to be a Christian some day. You intend to have all the fun and pleasure you can and then turn to God and His mercy. That's a cowardly, mean way of doing. God may forgive you and take you home but there will be the memory of wrong doing. A man may be forgiven his sin, may be pardoned, but he never can have his innocence again. You can be forgiven but you can not get back your physical life if you have wrecked it.

"John Newton as a young man convinced a boy that there was no God. Later in life Newton himself was gloriously converted and one day he was called to see a dying man. The man was the boy of Newton's youth, but try as he would Newton could not change the man's ideas. So the man passed out into utter darkness. Newton was forgiven but the effect of his sin had lived on. There is a strife going on in your heart between goodness and wickedness. The devil always offers immediate reward. God never does; He offers a final reward. God gives present peace and joy but the greatest reward comes hereafter. The Devil offers nothing hereafter, but God pays us twice for serving Him. Tell the young man he is crystalizing, that what he is now he will be hereafter. Tell the young man that he is crystalizing his life and urge him to crystalize good habits and good deeds. Run to that young man and tell him to turn now to right living; that delay is dangerous. You have the opportunity now, do not let it pass for before another sun it

The after meeting was one of great interest and a number came forward and many more stood up for prayers. Twelve persons signified their wish to enter upon church membership. Services will be held to day at the usual hours.

FOR BENEFIT OF SCHOOLS.

B. F. Johnson of Laffarpe, who died recently, left an estate estimated at $150,000 to that city in trust, the income to be appropriated annually to the support of a school, the tuition of which must be free. More than twenty years ago he conceived the design of leaving his property for this purpose and carefully read the law with regard to wills and studied decisions in cases where such instruments had been contested, in order to reach a complete understanding of what is required. He then, with his own hand, wrote his will. The estate consists of valuable farm land and is expected to yield an annual income of at least $7,500.

QUIRE OR CHOIR?

Words and their meaning afford an interesting study and philologists tell us some strange things. Many who consider themselves scholars are often caught by some arbitrary dictum in the matter of spelling or derivation and the study of all languages and especially the English language brings to light many peculiar facts.

In going his rounds Tuesday a reporter was asked to give the collection noun for a band of singers. Naturally the word "choir" was given in reply and the questioner was asked if "quire" was not equally correct. The query brought out the following story:

A colored man rushed into a store where a number were congregated and asked one of the company how to spell choir, meaning a band of singers. One of the company spoke up promptly saying "quire." The colored man wrote the word and then turning to the man who had volunteered the information remarking that it did not look right on paper. A controversy of good natured character resulted and as the colored man demurred the white man finally offered to bet him a hundred dollars "quire" was right.

The colored man hesitated but in a few moments said he only had fifty dollars but that he would bet that amount.

No, the white man declared, it was a hundred dollars or nothing. By this time the crowd had become quite interested and so positive were many that "quire" was wrong that they offered to make up the other fifty dollars so that the colored man could bet. This was done and then Webster's unabridged dictionary was sent for to decide the bet. Turning to the "Qs" the white man quickly found the word "Quire," a band of singers, and before any of the crowd had time to look further the bet was declared won and the white man demanded the money. It developed afterward that the two men were playing a confidence game.

If any one would take the trouble to turn to the "Qs" in Webster's unabridged dictionary they will find the word "quire," a band of singers, but they will also find after the word "Obs." and "see choir" meaning that the spelling "quire" is obsolete. If they turn then to the word "choir" they will find in the explanatory note the phrase, "formerly written 'quire'."

TWO INFLUENCES

Working Independently Combined in Founding of Illinois College—Second Address by President Rammelkamp to Students.

President Charles H. Rammelkamp delivered the second of his series of lectures on "The History of Illinois College," before the students of the college in the chapel of the Jones building Tuesday morning. The first lecture of the series delivered two weeks ago aroused much feeling in the student body to know more of their college and President Rammelkamp's address yesterday was listened to with keen interest. He said in part:

Our Puritan forefathers believed in direct divine providence and I believe a vast majority of the serious minded people of to day would say that there is in this world a power which makes for righteousness. We see many examples of it in the world as a whole and in our everyday life. In the founding of Illinois college there seems to have been something of providence at work, and I want to deal especially with this phase of the subject this morning.

In my last talk I dealt with the selection of the present site by Thomas Lippincott and John M. Ellis. Hard as the task of selecting the best possible site for a college seemed to them, they found their real difficulties in getting funds for the actual building of the college. The first action of Mr. Ellis and his friends was to make a report of what had been done and a plan for financial aid to the Presbytery then meeting in St. Louis, which comprised the states of Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Strange to say, the Presbytery refused to endorse the report.

Mr. William Lippincott, who was present at the meeting, in speaking of the occurrence said that it was his opinion that the situation selected for the college was on the wrong side of the river, that had the location been on the Missouri side of the Mississippi the report would have received the endorsement asked for. However this may be, the report failed for support from that quarter. Illinois in those early times was not the prosperous country it is to day and the committee appointed had much difficulty in securing funds. By hard work they succeeded in getting pledges for $2,000, the first and also the largest subscription being that of $300 given by Mr. William Collins.

At this same time, all unconscious of and unknown to Mr. Ellis and his friends, a group of students in far away New England were working and praying together for the same thing for which Mr. Ellis was working in the west. These young men of the east were attending the Yale theological seminary and had bright futures before them, but they decided that the west should be their field of work just at this time there appeared in a New England publication an article by John M. Ellis in regard to his undertaking toward the formation of a college in the west and a call for aid in the undertaking. This call for aid seemed to come from providence and one of their number, Mr. Mason Grosvenor, wrote at once to Mr. Ellis, telling him of their interest in the project. This letter from the Yale men offering to co-operate with Mr. Ellis brought joy to hearts of Mr. Ellis and his board of trustees, which had already been appointed. Mr. William Posey, one of the first board of trustees, said the offer from the Yale men seemed to come as a direct answer to prayer.

The board of trustees at once decided to accept the aid made by the eastern men and seven young men afterward to be so well known as the "Yale Band," came to Jacksonville. They were Mason Grosvenor, Theron Baldwin, John F. Brooks, Elsiea Janney, William Kirby, Asa Turner and J. M. Sturtevant. In addition to coming into the wilds of the west and giving their personal labor the "Yale Band" pledged themselves to raise $10,000 in addition to the $2,000 raised in the west for the founding of a seminary of learning. Every one of these young men was filled with a spirit to advance God and education in the west. It indeed seems nothing short of providential that these two forces, one from the east, the other from the west, one Congregational, the other Presbyterian, should exist and combine at just the right time and found our Illinois college.

MUSKRAT WAS RIGHT

—WAS HE?

The muskrat as a forecaster of the weather must be respected. This winter he had the right idea of it, if never before. The manner of the construction of his house indicates his premonition of the quality of goods to be delivered by the man who regulates the weather. This winter he made little or no preparations in the manner of constructing a home. He deemed it useless. Instead of a high, well constructed mound which is always built when the indications are ripe for cold weather, this year, the aquatic little rodent made scarcely any preparation and the absence of the wintry winds and cold weather generally, shows how correct he was in his views. Along the Mackinaw and other streams, the insubstantial character of the muskrat house is now noted but to the fishermen and others familiar with the habits of the animal the incident is not a strange one, as the muskrat invariably makes preparations in accordance with the severity or mildness of the weather.

Antwerp, March 12.—Thirty-one persons were drowned to day owing to equinoctial tides overflowing or bursting the docks on the Scheldt river.

I have a boy some 8 years old. Who goes to school each day. He says he works so very hard. He has no time for play. He works with straw-making things. Like baskets gone to seed. But, goodness gracious, how I wish They'd teach him how to read.

They've taught him how to mould with clay. Make birds and fishes and all kinds of things that swim the sea. Or crawl upon the land. And some of them are works of art. And cute enough to sell. But, goodness gracious, how I wish They'd teach him how to spell.

They've taught him some new kind of drill. He kicks one foot out straight. And then he hauls it back again. And kicks out with its mate. And then he shoots his right foot out. As if he's going to fight. Now by my hollow I wish They'd teach him how to write.

I asked him once to tell me what A semicolon was. He said it was a bird of prey. With cruel beak and claws. But bugs he can enumerate. To make his teacher glad. Now by my tax receipt I wish They'd teach him how to add. Eugene Clay Ferguson.

WHILE ON BED OF SUFFERING

MRS. JULIA GIBBONS HEARS SONGS OF GLORY SUNG

At Tabernacle Meetings—Telephone is Medium Employed—Overcome with Joy She Hears Words, "Tell Mother I'll be There."

Over Eighty Years of Age and Never Used Phone Before.

An evidence that the Culppeper meetings are proving a blessing to more than those who are able to visit the tabernacle nightly was seen by a Journal representative Tuesday evening. The sight of an aged woman, tied to her bed by the bonds of pain and suffering, drinking in the words of the great evangelist, and listening with rapt attention to the songs of glory and of praise, in a modest home many blocks from the scene of the meeting, is one long to be remembered. The telephone is the medium employed, and the results are a tribute to the man who conceived the idea, and as promptly put it into execution.

Mrs. Julia Gibbons, of 326 East College avenue, has been confined to her bed since July 11 last. Being naturally of a deep religious nature, she has ever considered it a great hardship that she was not permitted to attend divine services. At the opening of the great revival services, she from the first manifested a keen interest in the proceedings, and when the manager of the Bell Telephone company announced the tabernacle service recently installed, kind friends at once supplied her with a telephone, and the results have exceeded their greatest anticipations.

When Mrs. Gibbons was seen Tuesday night, she was lying in her bed, holding the receiver to her ear with difficulty. By her side was a faithful friend, Mrs. Sophia Benson, who had kindly offered, though herself in poor health, to watch beside her friend, while Mrs. Gibbons' daughter, Mrs. Anna Ferguson, attended the meeting, to bring to her aged mother a verbal report of the workings of the spirit of God.

When the reporter entered, Mrs. Gibbons laid aside the receiver, and extended a warm greeting. When asked if she could hear the services, she replied that she could not hear it all but enough to follow the course of the remarks of the speaker. The singing she especially enjoyed, and although she could not understand the words, she could hear the time and the exhortations. She commented upon the wonders of modern invention, saying that when she was a girl, if anybody had suggested the idea of talking over a wire, he would have been considered a lunatic. Saturday was the first time she had ever used a telephone. She further expressed her heartfelt gratitude to the kind friends who had conceived the idea of putting in the phone. "I guess I'll see what they are doing," she said sweetly, as the hour hand of the clock on the wall approached 9 o'clock. And the look of holy joy on her face as she heard the sweet refrain, "Tell Mother I'll be There," was glorious to behold. The telephone is equipped with two receivers, so that the watcher can also hear. As the stentorian tones of young Culppeper rang out in his stirring appeal, "Come on! Why don't you come on now?" she remarked that she didn't see how anybody could hold back. At times, though weak from long sickness, and not able to hold the receiver to her ear long at a time, she would rise up in her bed in the fervor of her enthusiasm.

Mrs. Gibbons has been a widow since 1865, when her husband died during the great civil conflict. She lives with her daughter, whose tender ministrations have made her declining days blessed. Until about a year ago she enjoyed good health, and although 82 years of age, bid fair to spend many years longer upon this earth. She was seized, however, with rheumatism, and since last July has been confined to her bed. Her first thoughts are toward religion, and upon the wall of her neat room, where they can be plainly seen are the following mottoes: "Nearer, My God, To Thee."

"Forsake me not, O Lord, O My God, be not far from me."

"Promise."

"He hath said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. And even to your old age I am He; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you; I have made and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you."

"Precept."

"Keep yourself in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

"Praise."

"I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever."

With such thoughts is her old age comforted, and although, as she put it, her friends tell her that "in the spring, she will come out of her bed like a snake from its hole," she is preparing for whatever her God wills for her.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which has been very painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation, I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me. Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious, I was a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them. Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 5th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Vinol THE COD LIVER PREPARATION WITHOUT OIL

Vinol is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions because, without a drop of oil or disagreeable feature, it contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers. By our process the oil, having no value either as a medicine or food, is separated from the medicinal elements and thrown away. Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, Vinol is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, and therefore unequalled as a body builder and strength creator for old people, puny children, weak, run-down men and women, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases. Everything Vinol contains is named on the label.

OUR GUARANTEE—We have such faith in VINOL that if you will take it we promise if it does not benefit or cure you we will return you your money without question. We take all the risk.

Stomach Distress is A Danger Signal

Gas on the stomach, belchings, pains and weakening perspirations resulting shortly after eating are the signs nature provides as stomach warnings.

The most general and only cure for such ailments is to promptly cleanse the bowels. If the proper physic is taken, relief is almost immediate, but because the proper physic is not taken, chronic cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and many other ailments that are directly due to these disorders are set up.

The physics usually taken—salts, pills, tablets, etc., do cleanse the bowels but not without causing a great loss of strength. The bowels cannot then perform their functions without another physic and continually a stronger drug is required, until a dangerous "pill habit" has been formed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

has a strengthening influence upon the bowels and intestines. It is pleasant to take, does not weaken or gripe, and never establishes the dangerous habit which most other remedies do.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by all druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

Your money back if it doesn't benefit you.

BISHOP CASE

Trial in Progress Before Esquire Arenz in Circuit Court Room — Seven Witnesses Examined Last Night — Adjournment Taken Until 9 o'clock This Morning.

Before a crowded court room of curiosity seekers the trial of the case of the city vs. Belle Bishop and Richard Connors charged with keeping an assignation house, was begun Tuesday afternoon before Esquire Richard Reid, but on a change of venue went before Esquire Albert W. Arenz. The crowd was so great that an adjournment was taken from the office of the justice to the circuit court room. Appearing in behalf of the city were City Attorney W. M. Morrissey and Judge M. T. Layman and in behalf of the defendants Attorney W. N. Hairgrove and States Attorney Bert Van Winkle. The city dismissed the charge of keeping an assignation house as to Connors, but he was later re-arrested on the charge of being an inmate.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in selecting a jury to try the case but before court adjourned for supper the following gentlemen had been chosen: Vincent Riley, William Hamilton, Charles W. Tinsley, Ira Patterson, Edward Nunn and Robert C. Smith.

The trial of the case was entered upon at 7:30 o'clock when another large crowd was assembled in the court room. Seven witnesses were on the stand and the character of the testimony was of a decidedly sensational nature and totally unfit for publication.

At 11 o'clock last night adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock this morning.

Buck's Range Tops are Always Level.

The long centers are made in two inter-locking pieces, instead of one. Room for expansion and contraction is allowed; warping of tops is impossible.

Some Reasons

There are many reasons why these Buck's ranges are the best in the world. Three of them are:

They are built from the very best of material by the very best of workmen.

They are so constructed as to combine beauty with quick heating, fuel-saving qualities.

They have all the improvements and advantages found in other ranges and then some.

Buck's Range Tops Heat Up Quickly

The lids, while strong and durable, are so thin that the mere heat of a match will affect them. A quickly heated stove lid means a quickly prepared meal.
